Burrito Deluxe's Moody Earns International Country Artist Achievement Award

Disciples Of The Truth CD Sneak-Preview Available At AirPlay Direct

Burrito Deluxe lead singer Carlton Moody, a two-time Grammy nominee, has spent his entire life performing country music all over the world - as a solo artist, with his brothers (The Moody Brothers), and with his current band. On November 18th in Paris , France , at a VIP reception sponsored by Planet Hollywood and Disneyland Paris, Moody will be presented with The International Country Artist Achievement Award for his dedication to country music. Following the invitation-only affair, Moody and Burrito Deluxe will hit the stage at Billy Bob's in Disney Village , officially launching their new CD, Disciples Of The Truth, in Europe . The CD is scheduled for US debut in early 2007.

But a sneak-preview of the CD is currently available for streaming and "broadcast-quality" download at AirPlay Direct (www.airplaydirect.com/music/bands/2966/index.php). In an effort to familiarize Americana , AAA, Country and College radio programmers with Burrito Deluxe, Luna Chica records is digitally releasing three tracks per month over the next 90 days via this revolutionary, new digital delivery system.

This month's tracks are "When The Summer's Over," "Front Row Seats To Heaven," and "Who's Gonna Love You."

This service is FREE to radio programmers and DJs and allows delivery of "broadcast-quality" tracks to you quickly, efficiently and cost effectively. You can preview and then download a "broadcast-quality" copy of the tracks at your convenience, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. If you have not yet registered at AirPlay Direct, visit www.airplaydirect.com/register.html to have access to this content.
